- हरिः ओम्॥ अथाहिताग्निर्म्रियेत प्रेतस्य मन्त्रैः
संस्कारोपतिष्ठते।

Verse 1.1 Transliteration

Harih. Om. Athahitaagnirmriyet pretasya mantraiyha sanskaropatishtathe. 1.1

Verse 1.1. Translation

- Then the fire of the yajna dies and the rituals are performed with the mantras of the deceased.

Verse 1.1 Word Concordance

- अथाहित - Then
- अग्निः - Vedic fire
- म्रियेत - dies
- प्रेतस्य - of the deceased
- मन्त्रैः - incantations
- संस्कार - rituals
- उपतिष्ठते - are performed

Verse 1.1 Meditative

- Fire symbolizes the internal fires such as jataraghni.
- The death of these fires is the awakening of samadhi.
- Pretas are close to the gate of Lord Shiva.
- The soul approaches the ultimate and is freed from the mind and hence ordinary rituals are ineffectual.

श्लोकः 1.2 Sanskrit

- स्वस्थो वाश्रमपारं गच्छेयमिति।

Verse 1.2 Transliteration

Svastho va ashrampaaram gachcheyam iti. 1.2

Verse 1.2. Translation

- I'll go across the hermitage in good health.

Verse 1.2 Word Concordance

- स्वस्थो वा - in good health
- आश्रमपारं - across the ashramas (three preliminary ashramas)
- गच्छेयम् - I will go
- इति - thus

Verse 1.2 Meditative

- By deepest meditation, the soul crosses the preparatory stages.
- It enters into samadhi-avastha, or liberation.
- During deep samadhi, the body is preserved in good health by the grace of the Lord.

शुलुकः 1.3 Sanskrit

- एतान् पित्रिमेधिकानोषधिसंभारान्संमृत्यारण्येगत्वा
अमावास्यायां प्रातरेवाग्नीनुपसमाधाय पितृभ्यः
